

2022 Travelers Currier & Ives Calendar

ORDERING INFORMATION

About the calendar:

The Travelers signature calendar, bearing Currier & Ives reprints from our print collection, was first introduced in 1936. This handsome calendar has become a part of American culture, with its illustrations decorating homes and business establishments across the country. It remains a perennial favorite of Travelers agents, brokers and their clients, and is considered a unique and valued marketing tool.

Our 2022 calendar reprises 12 of the earliest Currier & Ives reproductions. Once again, we have selected a pleasing array of prints from our company archives representing a wide variety of scenes. The illustrations are reproduced at a size convenient for framing, and we are confident they will be a welcome addition to any home or office.
